

Corporate Gift Wholesaler for Sale / South East Queensland

This well-established and profitable national promotional products wholesale supplier imports products and customizes them with promotional designs and logos.

A B2B Opportunity Without a Shopfront

This business is ideal for an established owner seeking diversification or a new buyer looking for a solid venture.

Market Leader in a Niche Sector

The vendor has kept it simple—focusing on a specific product range has secured the largest share of the wholesale market. You could continue with this successful strategy.

The leasehold factory, which can be relocated, is expertly set up. It's structured so well that it could even be run under management. The highly skilled and experienced staff have been with the business since its establishment in 2006. With all sales going directly to distributors across Australia, there's no need for a shopfront.

There's potential to diversify the product range and apply promotional printing to additional products. The equipment and efficient systems are already in place, with some machinery only a few years old. Capacity is available for expansion.

Opportunity is Knocking...

The business currently generates over $1 million in turnover, with significant potential for further growth. Expansion isn't limited to product diversification—direct-to-consumer sales remain untapped. Online retailing presents a highly profitable opportunity without the need for a physical shopfront.

There's a huge unmet demand for additional products in this sector.

An experienced business owner will recognize the potential.
